

SHEAC شياك مركز عمليات السلامة والبيئة
Safety, Health & Environment Action Center

Emergency Response Planning

AIMS

To give all participants the knowledge of preparing themselves for the worst and learning strategies to manage emergencies & crisis that are possibly to happen in their organization.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This course is beneficial to all fire and safety personnel, safety, and environmental staff, all those who are involved in crisis management and those responsible for loss prevention.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Provide an opportunity for participants to consider principles of emergency response in any industry
- Establish roles and responsibilities of each members of the emergency crisis team
- Consider contacts, organizational interface responsibilities and communication requirements within the crisis team
- Provide understanding of writing emergency and contingency plans
- Provide guidance on emergency evacuation and mock drills
- Know the requirements of an emergency plans

COURSE DURATION

One-day course

SHEAC شيك مركز عمليات السلامة والبيئة
Safety, Health & Environment Action Center

Emergency Preparedness training

